2009 EVENING LAND PINOT NOIR

The 2009 Evening Land Pinot Noir is a blend of various parcels of the Seven Springs Vineyard, one of the oldest and best sites in the Willamette Valley. The wine has an exceptional French styling to it—more complex mineral and earth notes, subtle use of new oak, and good acidity. This is not a fruit-forward-style Pinot Noir. It is a thought-provoking wine that shows layers of complexity. While very young, it still is a marvelous combination with hearty fare and holiday meals. Evening Land is upping the ante in Oregon.

2008 CHÂTEAU DE VAUGELAS

The return of an old favorite, Château de Vaugelas Corbières was one of our top-selling wines last year. Many never learned the name of the wine, but recognized the label immediately. The wine comes from a 270-acre estate in the heart of the Languedoc that dates to 799AD, when wine was produced for mass at the Abbaye de Lagrasse. The new vintage 2008 Château de Vaugelas Corbières is a blend of 35% Syrah, 30% Grenache, 30% Carignan, and 5% Mourvèdre that is big but supple in character. This is a fine recommendation for winter stews.

TWO GREAT TUSCAN REDS

Winemakers Alessandro Cellai of Castellare and Christian Le Sommer of Les Domaines Baron de Rothschild-Lafite joined forces for a project in Maremma to produce exceptional wine with international varieties. The 2007 Poggio alla Guardia is a blend of 45% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 15% Sangiovese that has a marvelous texture and an incredibly complex bouquet. The 2008 Le Sughere di Frassinello is a blend of 25% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 50% Sangiovese, aged in 50% new barriques that shows seductive new oak aromas and has a glycerine-layered texture. Both of these wines deliver complexity and textural elements that usually cost two or three times their prices.
