FEATURED WINES: DOMAINE CHEVEAU

The cellars of the Domaine Cheveau are located in the village of Solutré-Pouilly in the center of Pouilly-Fuissé. The domaine, established by André Cheveau in 1950, is now run by grandsons, Nicolas and Julien. The fourteen hectare estate is mainly located in and around Solutré-Pouilly, with holdings in Davayé in the Maconnais, and Saint Amour in Beaujolais. Their wines are racy and bright, with complex Chardonnay aromas of lime blossom and hazelnut.

DOMAINE DU CLOS DES ROCES

The entire appellation of Pouilly-Loché covers a mere 32 hectares, 30% of which belongs to Clos des Rocès. Owned and run by Olivier Giroux, this domaine takes its name from its main holding, the Clos des Rocès. It is a monopole vineyard covering three and one-half hectare with 70 year-old vines on a gentle east facing slope. The soils are perfect for Chardonnay.

2014 ADELSHEIM 'BREAKING GROUND'

It is hard to believe that 45 years have passed since David Adelsheim founded his winery in 1971. The Chehalem Mountains have played a big part in David's winemaking and to reflect this history, he created the 2014 Pinot Noir 'Breaking Ground'. Marine sedimentary, volcanic basalt, and windblown loess are the three soil types found in the Chehalem Mountains and grapes grown on all three are used to create this wine. It is simply stunning, showing beautiful black cherry, blueberry, and pomegranate aromas and flavors.

2015 HIPPOLYTE REVERDY SANCERRE

In 2015 Sauvignon Blanc from Sancerre did well, with ripe fruit, bright aromas, and firm acidity. Yields are down slightly due to poor flowering in the Spring. The 2015 Hippolyte Reverdy Sancerre shows a striking aroma of kumquat and lime. Racy and vibrant, lovely with fish, this is a Northwest friendly white.

CAHORS - FRENCH MALBEC

Stretching for 25 miles along the Lot River, Cahors is divided into two sections. The appellation is known for Malbec, (70% is required to use the Cahors name), Tannat, and Merlot. The limestone plateau called 'Causses' produces the more tannic wines, and gravelly slopes yield fruity, softer wines. Cahors wine is very dark in color, has a meaty, herbal aroma, with black cherries and cedar hints. On the palate, it is more generous and less charred than Argentine Malbec.

2014 BERNARD BAUDRY CHINONS

Well made Chinon wines have aromas of berries, violets, and pencil lead, with a juicy, mouth-watering taste, and a savory finish. At Domaine Bernard Baudry, cuvées are named for the terroir that gives each wine its unique character. 'Les Granges' is a lighter wine made for earlier drinking from grapes that are grown on gravel and sand. 'Les Grézeaux' is drawn from the estate's oldest vines, between 40 to 60 years old, planted on limestone and clay, and shows complex and peppery aromas. The 2014's have just arrived and this is a fine vintage for the region. These are great summer reds.

2012 MUGA RESERVA

The 2012 Muga Reserva is a superb blend of 70% Tempranillo, 20% Garnacha, 7% Mazuelo, and 3% Graciano that was aged for 24 months in barrels produced at the estate. The wine shows powerful dried cherry flavor, with vanilla and pepper spices. It has a lovely texture that sets it apart from many. This is a fantastic with to serve with roast chicken.

CHÂTEAU DE LA NOBLESSE - BANDOL

Agnès Cade and Henri Gaussen, owners of Domaine de La Noblesse, are located in La Cadière d'Azur, a sleepy village high above the Bandol coastline. They own 14 hectare and the site is in a shell shaped hollow that protects the land from rain. Their wines are racy and rich. The 2015 Château de La Noblesse Blanc, a blend of Clairette, Ugni Blanc, and Rolle, has a rich, supple mouthfeel that works well with finfish. The Rosé is classic, having 50% Mourvèdre, 25% Grenche, and 25% Cinsault, and needs warm weather to become itself. The 2013 Château de La Noblesse Rouge is a powerful Mourvèdre based red that screams for lamb.
