VISIT AT THE SHOPS

ABBZIA DI NOVACELLA - ALTO ADIGE

Located in the village of Novacella, in the Isarco River Valley of northern Italy, the Abbazia di Novacella dates to 1142, and was founded by the Augustinian Order of Canons Regular. Augustinians work to support themselves as a part of their community. The abbey's reputation as a winery is internationally recognized. We are pleased to have Mirko Redaelli visit the shops and pour samples of their wines on Saturday, July 28th.

2015 McCARTHY & SCHIERING RED

We are pleased to offer the 2015 McCarthy & Schiering Red, a wine that we developed with Morgan Lee of Two Vintners. It is a blend of 55% Grenache from Olsen Vineyard (blocks 19 and 23), with 27% Mouvèdre from Kiona Vineyard, and 18% Cinsault from Olsen Vineyard. We built this wine to resemble a fine Côtes-du-Rhône. It has a high note of sweet red fruit from the Grenache, a lower note of woody, earthiness from Mouvèdre, and a note of acidity and graphite from the Cinsault. This is a great wine for summer barbecues where meat is the theme.

2017 DOMAINES OTT ROSÉS

Château de Selle was the first estate purchased by Marcel Ott in 1912, a site where the soil is gypsum, red clay, dolomite, and sandstone mixed with gravel and stone—perfect for growing Grenache, Cinsault, Syrah, and Mourvèdre. Château Romassan was restored and renovated in 1956. The vines have an age of 25 years, across the 74 hectares of the estate. The soils are chalk, sandstone, and marl. These wines represent the benchmarks for all other French rosés to compare themselves. (A few magnums are available.)

FEATURED WINES:

SAINT COSME - RHÔNE VALLEY

The Saint Cosme estate lies in the center of Gigondas, with 62 acres of vines growing in the shade of the Dentelles de Montmirail mountain. Estate grown wines are labeled 'Château de Saint Cosme'. When winemaker Louis Barruol buys grapes from contracted growers, he labels the wines simply as 'Saint Cosme.' We have a selection of five new wines, each of which is a prime example of the terroir of their site. Come in and taste these wines on Saturday, July 21st at both shops.

TENUTA DELLE TERRE NERE - ETNA

An amazing place, Tenuta delle Terre Nere is located near the town of Randazzo, on the northern slopes of Mount Etna—the Côte d'Or of Mount Etna. The 2017 Tenuta delle Terre Nere Bianco is a field blend of Carricante, Catarratto, Inzolia, and Grecanico. It is dry, intense, well-balanced, and lasting. Nerello Mascalese and Nerello Cappuccio are used to create the single cru expressions of Etna Rosso. These wines have explosive aromas that erupt on the palate, and are overflowing with flavor...sorry! Come in and taste a selection of these wines on Saturday, July 7th at both shops.

2014 NOTRE DAME DE PALLIERES

Formerly a Côtes du Rhône-Villages, Rasteau became an appellation in 2009. The domaine has 13 hectare of old vines on plots of clay soils, covered with heat retaining stones—galets. The 2014 Notre Dames de Pallières Rasteau is a blend of 75% Grenache, 15% Mourvèdre, and 10% Cinsault, aged in French oak barrels of 3 to 5 years. It shows a purple color, with an heady aroma of blackberry, white pepper, and cocoa. On the palate, ripe fruit and spicy flavors abound. The wine has a long finish with lasting tannins.

SUPER SOAVES

Fittà is the name of the ancient village where Suavia is located. The 2015 Suavia 'Massifitti' is made from 100% Trebbiano di Soave. It is elevated in stainless steel tanks, and then spends six months aging. The 2016 Suavia 'Monte Carbonare' is named for the hill where the vineyard is situated, because the volcanic soils are black as coal. Made from 100% Garganega, it is a pure expression of this volcanic terroir.
