2016 CADENCE REDS

Winemaker Ben Smith will be in the shops to showcase his new Red Mountain wines. The 2016 vintage in Washington State saw very warm temperatures and an abundant crop that was ripe early, and required meticulous sorting. The freshness of Red Mountain fruit punches through, and these lovely, big wines are showy.

2017 CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE

The 2017 vintage in the Rhône Valley was a bit challenging to begin with, but in the end the results were outstanding! Powdery mildew at flowering reduced the crop size by up to 50%. A drought during the summer didn't help, and some producers harvested their fruit quite early. Yet the quality is exceptional! The wines are both precise, and at the same time texturally rich, with a balancing tannic imprint. Come in and taste these wines on Saturday, December 7th.
