2016 DOMAINE DROUHIN PINOT NOIR

As described on their website, the 2016 Domaine Drouhin Pinot Noir has "...aromas of flower petals, candied dark cherry and plum, interwoven with savory notes, sandalwood, and a touch of oak. The first taste presents dark fruit flavors and cherry, with pink peppercorn, rhubarb, and five-spices. Ripe, well-integrated tannins are balanced by the graceful structure." Well stated!

2018 KERLOO SAUVIGNON BLANC

Sauvignon Blanc is making a surge in Washington State, leaving the herbacious notes behind, and focusing on the gooseberry and lime zest notes. The crisp and racy style, along with lower alcohols provides great shellfish and finfish matches. The 2018 Kerloo Sauvignon Blanc is suprisingly Sancerre-like, with hints of lime blossom. This is worth buying a stash and enjoying over the summer.

FEATURED WINES:

2016 CHATEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE

The 2016 vintage in Chateauf-neuf du Pape is fabulous for both red and white wines. Several estates produced the best wines in their history. The wines display elegant textures with wonderful finesse. There is a purity of fruit that is striking, with freshness and balance. Come in and taste a selection of these wines on Saturday, June 29th at both shops.

2018 LA GIUSTINIANA

La Giustiniana is one of the oldest wineries in Gavi. Cortese grapes have been grown here since the XV Century. The 2018 La Giustiniana Gavi di Gavi 'Lugarara', one of two Grand Cru vineyards on the estate, is made using hand-harvested grapes, planted on calcareous soils. An aroma of pear, apple, lemon zest, and roasted almonds is matched with vibrant acidity and a crisp apple flavor, perfect with finfish.

CAHORS

With summer barbecues just around the corner, try a new wine to match the spicy meats from southwestern France—Cahors. The village has a history dating back to Celtic times. By law, Cahors must be made of at least 70 percent Malbec, with only Merlot and Tannat allowed as blending grapes. Once called the ‘black wine’ of Cahors, one can barely see their fingers through a glass. These big red wines stand up to foie gras, truffles, game, duck confit, and the regional cassoulet. There is a core of acidity that cleanses the palate, and a faintly smoky style that marries with spices of barbecue sauces.

TENUTA DELLE TERRE NERE

We have had lots of fine wines from Tenuta delle Terre Nere over many vintages, and after reading this quote from Marco de Grazia, “All in all, we would hazard saying that the 2017 reds will rival those of the finest vintages we’ve had at Tenuta delle Terre Nere”, we decided a tasting was the perfect thing to do. Come in and sample these wines on Saturday June 8th at both shops.

ORLANDO PECCHENINO

Amazing new vintages from Orlando Pecchenino have just arrived. The 2017 Pecchenino Bianco is a marvelous blend of Chardonnay and Sauvignon that takes the best of each variety and offers a near perfect seafood wine. The 2017 Pecchenino ‘San Luigi’ is bright and juicy, perfect for lighter red sauce dishes. The 2015 Pecchenino Nebbiolo ‘Bricco Ravera’ resembles a true old style Barolo—tar and roses, and the 2014 Pecchenino Barolo ‘San Giuseppe’ is an exceptional value for its quality.

DOMAINE ROMAIN COLLET - CHABLIS

The Collet estate in Chablis dates to the early 1950’s and has been managed by a succession of Collet family members ever since. Much of their fruit was sold to larger negociants, but the young Romain Collet chose to bottle these excellent parcels under his own label. Racy acidity, great minerality, and pure winemaking make his Chablis some of the best in the region.
