* VISIT AT THE SHOPS REYNVAAN – WALLA WALLA

Together the Reynvaan family has created one of the unique wineries in the Walla Walla Valley. The family estate combines two separate vineyards, one in the Rocks District and the other in the Foothills of the Blue Mountains. Their first vintage was 2007. They have had many successes, and today there is a waiting list to get their wines. Winemaker Matt Reynvaan's philosophy is simple, "Our goal is to produce one of the finest Syrahs in the world from our vineyards in the Walla Walla Valley." Matt will be in the shops on Saturday, August 17th to sample his wines.

2017 CHABLIS

2017 Chablis quantities were reduced by frost and hail early on, but the harvest in Chablis saw cool nights that kept acidities higher than in previous years. One could say that 2017 Chablis combine the acidity of 2014 with the fruit of 2010.

2016 SOTER NORTH VALLEY RESERVE

North Valley focuses attention to the cool climate of the northern vineyards in the Willamette Valley. The 2016 North Valley Pinot Noir Reserve is a blend of 38% Yamhill-Carlton, 34% Ribbon Ridge, 24% Eola-Amity Hills, and 4% Dundee Hills fruit. Each region brings a flavor profile that is different, with black cherries, black raspberries, and anise from Yamhill-Carlton and Ribbon Ridge sites, and lovely red fruits—plums, and dried cherries from Eola-Amity and Dundee Hills vineyards. The result is a wine with a sublime mouthfeel, offering a bit of all Pinot Noir characteristics.

2017 MARK RYAN MONKEY WRENCH

A new wine from Mark Ryan Winery is the 2017 Mark Ryan Red 'Monkey Wrench'. A blend of 47% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Cabernet Franc, and 9% Petit Verdot, the wine comes from fruit off of Red Willow, Phinny Hill, Olsen, Ciel du Cheval, and Quintessence vineyards. It has an opulent aroma of violets, red fruits—plum and pomegranate, and a hint of red licorice. On the palate, the wine shows silky tannins and a long mocha finish. This is a fine new addition to the Mark Ryan family.

FEATURED WINES: DOMAINE NEVEU SANCERRES

Domaine André Neveu, located in the picturesque village of Chavignol, has been a source of great Sancerre wine for over 45 years. Valérie, André Neveu's daughter, and her husband Thomas Dézat, oversee the 30 acre estate. They make four terroir-specific Sancerres—some of the raciest wines in the village. Come in and taste these wines on Saturday, August 10th at both shops.

J.L.CHAVE SELECTION

The J.L.Chave Selection label first appeared with the 1995 Saint Joseph 'Offerus' and the négociant side of the Chave family business has grown steadily ever since. The wines are a blend of purchased and estate fruit, and show the talent of this winemaking family. One has to ask the question, "is Chave the greatest winemaking family in the Rhône Valley?"

2018 DELILLE CHALEUR ESTATE BLANC

Few wineries can state that their wine was served at the White House over three administrations—DeLille Cellars Chaleur Blanc has been so honored! A blend of 71% Sauvignon Blanc and 29% Sémillon, the 2018 DeLille Cellars Chaleur Estate Blanc was fermented sur lie in French oak barrels to extract a creamy texture. The first bottling was in 1995, and the impressive Bordeaux-ish richness has been the house style since the beginning. This wine reminds us of the wines of the great domaine bottlings of Pessac-Léognan in its weight and complexity.

SAINTSBURY

The times have changed since David Graves and Dick Ward started Sainsbury in 1981, when their Chardonnay sold for $7.50, and the Rancho Carneros Pinot Noir sold for $8.00. Prices may have gone up, but the quality has never varied, and today these are among the most reliable wines from California. A few delicious single vineyard bottlings from Carneros and the Sonoma Coast are also available—please inquire.

BOURGOGNE ALIGOTÉ

Long regarded as Bourgogne Blanc's poor cousin, Bourgogne Aligoté has received little respect. But to state it clearly, if it was a lesser wine, why would producers such as Aubert de Villaine, Coche-Dury, Ramonet, Jean-Marc Roulot, Michel Lafarge, Jean Fournier, Sylvain Pataille, Ponsot, Leroy, and Marquis d'Angerville produce it—because it is delicious and well priced. The regional A.O.C. Bourgogne Aligoté was established in 1937, allowing Bourgogne Aligoté to be bottled across the communes of Burgundy. There are two distinct clones, Aligoté Vert and Aligoté Doré (golden Aligoté). For many, Aligoté was the wine blended with crème de cassis to make a kir. Now the varietal has become the darling of the French restaurant scene, and finding the major brands can be difficult. It is an ideal match with gougères, snails with garlic butter, or jambon persillé, but it reaches its peak with ling cod cooked with Moroccan spices, or simply with olive oil and lemon. We love the quote by Jon Bonné, "At a time when Burgundy has become a totem for the rich, Aligoté stands out as its populist wing—the sort of Bernie Sanders of Burgundian varieties."

BODEGAS MUGA — RIOJA

The 2014 Bodegas Muga Selección Especial just arrived. It is a sublime blend of 70% Tempranillo, 20% Garnacha, 7% Mazuelo, and 3% Graciano. The aroma is all about red fruits, with hints of red pepper and coffee—gorgeous!

FAST & FURIOUS 2017 CHIROULET 'TERRES BLANCHES'

Named after 'chiroula' a local word meaning 'wind that whistles', Domaine Chiroulet produces a dry white wine called 'Terres Blanches' from a blend of 50% Gros Manseng, 40% Sauvignon Blanc, and 10% Ugni Blanc from old vines. This is a seafood friendly wine—from mussels to squid.

2016 FABIEN COCHE MEURSAULT

Fabien Coche owns 20 acres within the Meursault appellation, and his Meursault Village come from three estate parcels, Malporiers, Les Dresolles, and Le Pré de Manches. The 2016 Domaine Fabien Coche Meursault shows classic butter and vanilla aromas, with an earthy note. It has tension and acidity underlying its creamy texture.

TERRE DI MARCA ROSÉ BUBBLY

A bone-dry rosé bubbly from the Veneto region, made with 100% Raboso using the ancient method called 'colfondo', meaning cloudy, the Corvezzo Terre di Marca Rosé Frizzante has a faint pink haze and is perfect for hot summer evenings.

2016 CLOS DES ROCS POUILLY-LOCHÉ

Olivier Giroux of Clos des Rocs owns over 30% of the appellation Pouilly-Loché, (Pouilly-Loché covers a mere 32 hectares). The 2016 Clos des Rocs 'En Chantone' is a sublime wine for white Burgundy lovers—creamy, minerally, and vibrant.
